5. CORRESPONDANCE (PCP) STUDENTS:

Students enrolled in correspondence courses (Non-St.Joseph's MBA twinning program) are expected to verify their enrollment numbers and examination venue by checking the Examination Notice Board placed near the Controller of Examinations (COE) Office. The notice board will be updated daily at 9:30 AM for morning sessions and 1:30 PM for afternoon sessions. After verifying the details, these students should proceed to their respective examination venues.

6. PARKING:

As other institutions will be operational during the examination period, except on Sundays, students are required to park their two-wheelers only at the Gonzonga Block. Entry will be permitted solely through the Gonzonga Block gate (next to St. Joseph's Law College), and access through other gates will be restricted, except on Sundays. Due to limited parking facilities, students are advised to prioritize using public transportation. If commuting by public transport is not feasible, they can use two-wheelers. However, parking four-wheelers on the campus premises is strictly prohibited.

7. ENTRY AND EXIT TIMING:

For the morning examination session, students should arrive on the campus after 9:20 AM, and for the afternoon session, they should arrive after 1:20 PM. Students are not permitted to gather in groups on the campus premises after their examinations, as other institutions will be operational. The exit time for students appearing in the morning session is 1:10 PM, and for those attending the afternoon session, it is 5:10 PM. If any student is found engaging in Indisciplinary Activities or loitering on the campus after the scheduled exit time, strict actions will be taken by the management.

8. EXAMINATION PROTOCOL

All students appearing for the examinations are required to carry their hall tickets and ID cards with them. They must adhere to the examination rules and regulations set forth by the institution. Engaging in any malpractice during the examinations may result in disbarment from appearing in subsequent examinations.
